Alaska USA Trust Company Reaches $3 Billion Mark

Alaska USA Trust Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alaska USA Federal Credit Union, recently surpassed $3 billion in assets under administration.

“Institutional and individual investors depend on Alaska USA Trust Company for a variety of investment, custody and trustee services,” said Bill Eckhardt, President, Alaska USA Trust Company. “With over $3 billion in assets under administration, it’s clear that the Trust Company provides investors with comprehensive services and real value.”

Alaska USA Trust Company offers investment custody and securities lending services to credit unions, public units and other institutions. In addition, the company provides individuals with a variety of investment, retirement and personal trust services.

Alaska USA Federal Credit Union is a member-owned, not for profit financial cooperative with more than 255,000 members. The credit union and its family of financial service companies, Alaska USA Trust Company, Alaska USA Mortgage Company and Alaska USA Insurance Agency, offer a full range of consumer financial services.
